

Week of April 28, 2008

- Seniors don't forget to bring your money and permission slip to buy your Grad Night ticket on Thursday at lunch. The first ten people in line to buy this Thursday will receive a prize.
- Blood Drive is May 9th! Pick up your parent consent form (17 and younger) in front of the ASB room.
- Juniors pay attention! We want to see all of you Juniors at the Junior class meeting this Thursday May 1st at lunch in room 8!
- Interested in Health careers? Applications are available for Sutter Junior Ambassador Program. Must be 16th to apply. See Ms. Lawson , Rm. 24
- Hey McClatchy? Are you an artist or writer and interested in getting published? Come visit Art and Poetry Club on Wednesdays at lunch in room D18 for more information.
- Get your Fresh made waffles every Monday Morning in the lunch quad. Support your website club.
- Hey Clubs! Wana sell food at international Day? Sign up today out side of ASB room.
- Attention all Seniors! If you guys want to run for Senior Ball royalty, please grab a petition in front of the ASB room.
- There will be a Junior class meeting in room 8 on Thursday. We will be talking about our yard sale. So if you wish to donate please come!
- Seniors wishing to tryout as a Graduation Speaker. See Rick Sydor in Room 2. Speak off will occur After School on Thursday May 15.
- Hey Lions! Sign up now for a 0 period Sac City Class for Fall 2008. We will offer English 300 and Sign Language 305. Pick up an application in the counseling office today! Hurry! Seats are filled on a first come first serve basis.

- Buy your yearbook by May 2 to get your yearbook at the 1st Annual Signing party on May 23 at 3:30. CASH ONLY AFTER MAY 2!!!!
- Heartbeats from High School- a book of poems and short essays written by McClatchy 10th graders will go on sale in the Controller's office Friday May 1st. The price is $3 for teenagers and $5 for adults. Heartbeats will be sold during zero period and lunch. Get your copy for inspiration.