

October 7, 2009

Students and teachers this is Mr. Porter, please stop for the morning announcements and the quote of the day.

The new Maya Angelo Library opening was a huge success yesterday. Will C. Wood Students checked out over 500 books. Many of you are becoming committed to becoming million word readers and I want to commend you for your efforts and time.

100 8th graders have taken their Great America Assessment tests for September. Results are looking very positive. 8th graders remember today is the last day to take the September end of month assessment. You may take them during your lunch period in the UCLA building, M-29. Hope to see you there.

Student Clubs meeting today are Club Yex in the Spartan Cafe; The Rose and Camellia Club in Room UC DAVIS BUILDING H-20; Students Making a Difference UC DAVIS BUILDING H-18; Golf Club; FNL Club UC Berkeley Building Rm 25 Boys and Girls Basketball in the Spartan Fieldhouse.

Our first Reading Counts BBQ is 11 days away. Already 70 students have met the criteria of 15 reading counts points and with the Maya Angelo Library opening yesterday the expectation is that will double and triple in the next few days. Don't be a square and miss out on the first BBQ

Student Reminders

The second floor of the quad area as well the interior quad area is off limits before school. Please refrain from those areas as we want you in areas where we can provide direct supervision.

Electronic Device are not allowed at WCW. The devices will be taken and returned at the conclusion of the school year.

Our High Achiever Pledge:

I am a High Achiever

I Listen

I Learn

I ask questions

I use my memory

I am Mr. Porter

Quote of the Day:

Education is not the answer to the question. It is the means to answer all questions. Be a High Achiever and ask questions.