

Good morning WCW Middle School this is Mr. Porter with the morning announcement followed by a quote of the day.

Here's a thank you in advance to the WCW Associated Student Body. The team of ASB representatives will begin shortly helping to administer the morning hand sanitizer from 7:45 AM until 8AM. The students will be supporting the effort to ensure all students have access to hand sanitizer at least twice daily while on campus.

The Maya Angelo Library will is open today so please stop in and choose books that will get you on the path to becoming a million word reader. Also remember the Little Library is open at every lunch period, please see Mr. Eldridge. The next Reading Counts BBQ is now about 3 weeks away. Remember you must have earned an additional 20 Reading Counts points since October to participate in this months BBQ.

8th Graders it's November and beginning today and running through Thursday you may take your end of month Great America Standards Test. The days for taking the test this month will be Tues, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. We'll see you at lunch time in Room 29. This simple 10 question test is surest method of getting to Great America with your classmates in June. - Good Luck! Last month we had over 200 8th graders take and pass the Great America test so we expect to see those same students plus a few more beginning today at lunch.

Our High Achiever Pledge

I am a High Achiever
I listen
I learn
I ask questions
I use my memory
I am Mr. Porter

Quote of the Day: Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up. Be a High Achiever and I'll see you at the finish line!
