

Good morning Will C. Wood Middle School This is Mr. Porter with the morning announcements followed by the quote of the day.

Great news million word readers:

Beginning this week our auxiliary library will be open in room I-22, both before and after school. Stop in and check out a book. Just like that your on your way to being a million word reader.

7th graders if your ELA teachers have not explained what Million Word Readers are ask today. There are about 100 benefits to being a million word reader at Will C. Wood. The list includes about 20 student and family BBQ's an end of year trip to Marine World and for 8th graders an additional end of year trip to Great America!

Talk to your teacher, but get reading today.

All those interested in participating in the Drawing Club please pick up a permission slip from Mr. Lindamood in Room 10. Drawing Club will meet this Friday at 2:20 PM in Room 10.

Our High Achievers Pledge:
